The Kinmonth's, Stan and Lilie, took the Best Triumph as voted by the MG Club and Best MG as voted by the Triumph Club awards. Stan also won Third Place in his category for his TR6.

A note from Lily

I want to thank all the Triumph Club members that attended the British Car Classic on Oct. 17th and voted for my little yellow MGB GT.

I was so excited just to be able to show the car, but to win a prize was overwhelming. I appreciate your friendship so much - you will never know how much that means to me!

Thank you, all, Lily Kinmonth

Cam Anderson won the Hard Luck Award for his description of an unfortunate series of events that caused a dent and scratch on his 1965 TR4A.

Norm Reimer won Second Place in his category for his Jaguar.

Christmas Party

The Triumph Club Christmas party this year will be hosted by Wayne and Annmarie Brooks in St. Augustine on December 19th beginning at 5 p.m. Full driving directions will be in the December newsletter

Annual Car Show Hosted by MG club

The annual car show in our area was hosted this year by the MG club. We alternate hosting with the MG club and next year will be our year to host. We always have our show at the King's Head British Pub in St. Augustine.

The MG club hosted the show this year at Buffalo's Southwest Grill. In addition to a great site, those who registered before the deadline date were given a free lunch. Several of the Triumph club members won awards for their cars.

Lance Brazil won First Place in his division with his Brooklands Green 1980 Triumph Spitfire.

The morning of the show started out chilly but soon the sun came out and it became warm enough to shed our jackets.

Charleston Show

Graham Thomas and Lance Brazil planned a trip to the Charleston, South Carolina 25th Annual British Car Day Hosted by the British Car Club of Charleston. Graham had been ill all the week leading up to the trip and was unable to go. Lance drove up and entered the show on the 24th. His Green Spitfire won First in Class. There were over 125 cars in the show with some rare beauties. The Charleston Club gives each winner an engraved platter 7"x10" and then mails out a stick-on engraved tag with the class and place.
