THE ROLEX 24 HOURS OF DAYTONA

JANUARY 30 – 31, 2010

The 48th running of the great and only 24 hour race in the US promises to be the best yet. The 2010 starting grid for the Rolex 24 will see a total of 73 racecars take the green flag and charge into the Speedway's narrow and always tricky Turn One.

AN INVITATION TO ALL TRIUMPH/BITCAR CLUB MEMBERS

Rolex and Daytona International Speedway invite all Club members to join us at this year's event. On Saturday the 30th we will once again host the Champions/Milestones Club at the Daytona 500 Club. The combined clubs offer a series of race related events on the morning of race day, including two parade laps of the 3.56 mile road course, and throughout the race weekend.

COSTS: Cost for the weekend track admission, parking and all Champion/Milestones Club events is $250/person, with a $10 surcharge for the parade laps. Tickets can be ordered by calling 866 887 6475. Specify Champions/Milestones Club and say you are a Triumph/Brit Car Club member.

Presidents Corner

The end of another year! Isn't this great, or did it go by too fast, did I miss something somewhere?

I want to thank the Brooks for hosting the TCNF Christmas Party this year. We had a great time, good food, a visit with friends and a chance to make new acquaintances. Thank you! Great Job.

The new year is here. The VTR National is scheduled for October 17th thru 21st at Jekyll Island Georgia. Visit www.vtr2010.org for more info. As you will notice our club has the responsibility of the driving events, and our annual British Car Day is around the same time. For those of you not involved in doing something for our BCD event and want to help with the National give me a call.

Speaking of events, if you have an idea, or want to plan an event, or want to go somewhere as a group, call Stan, our events person, and set it up. We can have a tech session, drive to a pub or café, or visit your favorite place. Having something to do as a group at least once a month is what we do, so let's fill the calendar for the year and get together to visit friends and kick tires.

Happy New Year everyone!

Walt

TCNF Christmas Party

December 19th was chilly but not cold. As Gloria and I arrived at the party location we were greeted by Wayne at the garage and Annmarie in the Kitchen.

The kitchen counters were covered with treats of all varieties: mini-sandwiches, cookies, candies, and rollup treats of all sorts. Enough good food to make you forget that you ever needed to be on a diet of any sort other than all-you-can-eat.

The party hosts combined the TCNF Christmas party with a neighborhood, golf, and tennis friends party. Many interesting people from all areas attended.

The Triumph club was eventually represented by Lance & Gloria Brazil, Stan & Lilie Kinmonth, Graham & Janett Thomas, Norm & Sue Reimer, and Walt and Barbara Lanz in addition to our hosts.

There were tall propane heaters at the garage and on the patio and I spent most of my time in the garage near the heater. Gloria must have gotten a laugh or two out of this since she had bought one for me for a Christmas present.

The Keg was in the garage along with a platter of boiled shrimp that would be used for bait the following morning if any was left over. I did my part to make sure that did not happen.

The Brooks' dog did not get too excited about all the company.

Culhane's Irish Pub

We will all meet at Culhane's Irish Pub in Atlantic Beach for an early afternoon lunch. Culhane's is owned and operated by four Irish sisters in the fashion of an authentic Irish pub. If you happen to have a copy of the Times Union Friday magazine section, Jack, there is a review on page3.

We will all meet there at 2:00 p.m.

Directions

From the south: Follow A1A North until it dead-ends in Atlantic Beach, Turn left, go 1/2 mile. Culhane's is in the Publix Shopping Center on the right.

From the west: Follow Atlantic Boulevard until you cross the Intracoastal bridge, then stay in either of the left two lanes straight over the next bridge and Culhane's is on the Left in the Publix Shopping Center.
